

Martin Enterprises

Quality Policy

Martin Enterprises is committed to providing their customer with superior products of the highest quality and personalized services.

Our goal through continuous improvement is to be a world class leader in the manufacture of underground utility enclosures.

Martin Enterprises prides itself on meeting or exceeding the requirements and expectations of our customers.

We meet these goals by continually improving the effectiveness of our Quality Management System in accordance with regulatory and Industry standards.

President

7-1-2011

Dated